THE EDITOR'S DESK

Welcome to the Alabama issue of the Upshaw Family Journal. We trust these records will provide the means of untangling many Upshaw lines and verifying much of that which has gone before. I especially appreciate the generosity of the Everton Publishers, P.O. Box 368, Logan, Utah 84321, in granting permission to present the map of Alabama from the Nandy Book For Genealogists, 6th (1971) edition, in our Alabama issue.

Our member, Mr. Jefferson D. Upshaw, Louise, Mississippi, has donated $50 to the Upshaw Family Journal; contributions are most welcome and allow us not only to operate from a solid fiscal position, but also to research sources and request data which would otherwise not be available to us. A big "Thank You" from all of us to you, Cousin Jefferson Upshaw.

Your Editor, Ted O. Brooke, was certified by the Board for Certification of Genealogists on 6 June 1975 and I am proud to become the 194th person to achieve that distinct honor. I shall do my very best to uphold the high standards of quality and integrity that distinguished group expects of it's members. I am now accepting a limited number of assignments in Georgia and will gladly quote fees and give estimates for a brief summary of any particular problem.

My warmest thanks to all who continue to send in records, letters of encouragement, contributions, and corrections; it is you who have made the Upshaw Family Journal the fine research publication it is.

Next issue: Mississippi and Tennessee!

May God be with you all.

Ted O. Brooke,
Editor

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Cousin;

The Spring issue of the Upshaw Family Journal was very interesting.

I was especially interested in the letter from Mr. Robert Davidson, N.Y., about Thomas Streshley, Sr., because Thomas Streshley was my 5th great grandfather. He is buried in the Streshley burying ground at Rockland, near Rexburg, Essex County, Virginia. He died in 1735, leaving two sons, Thomas and William Streshley, who both served in the Revolution; he also left one daughter, Tamazen, who married William Upshaw, Jr., son of William and Hannah (Forrest) Carber Upshaw of Essex County. The tombstone of Thomas Streshley, Sr., still stands. He married Hannah _____ and they had a daughter, Elizabeth Streshley, who married the Huguenot, Nicholas Lafon; their daughter, Mary Lafon, married my 2nd great grandfather, John Upshaw, in Aug 1769; my great grandfather, Edwin Upshaw, was their son. Reference copies of wills.

Cousin Grace E. Jared

(Editor's note: The following letter is in reply to my inquiry to Mrs. Dorsey requesting further details about a letter written circa 1880 from Lincoln Parish, Louisiana, which mentions "Old Aunt Katy Upshaw"; Mrs. Dorsey would appreciate any further information about these families.)

Dear Mr. Brooke;

Your letter to Mrs. Parrott of the 13th was forwarded to me; I will try to clear up some of the confusion about the dates. I think the confusion results from the fact that I have several old letters. I do not have the originals of all these letters; some are copies given me by a cousin who started this work some years ago and has since passed away.

John and Esther (Liddell) Davis had a daughter, Elizabeth J., born 1816 in South Carolina. She married Thomas P. Smith, who was born 1810 in Butler County, Alabama, in 1832. He was the son of a widow, Nancy Smith, whose will was probated in Butler County in 1855, although we do not know the father's given name. The children of Thomas P. and Elizabeth J. (Davis) Smith are as follows:

E. Jane, born 1833, married John Richardson
Nancy Elizabeth, born 1835, married Moses Warren Spivey
Fredonia Caroline, born 1836, married Matthew Patterson
Andrew Daniel, born 1838, unmarried; died in the War Between the States
Rebecca T., born 1841, died young
(Thomas P. Smith died circa 1841 and Elizabeth remarried)

Perhaps this family sketch will make the letters easier to follow; now to the letters. One was written on 9 July 1855 from Greenville, Alabama, by E. Jane (Smith) Richardson to her sister Nancy Elizabeth (Smith) Spivey in Louisiana or Texas - we are not sure which but we know they moved from Louisiana to Texas between 1855 and 1857.

On 29 Dec 1861, A. D. Smith wrote his sister, Nancy, from Pelican Camp, Virginia, describing his life in the service. He was killed 1 July 1862.

Actually, the only letter that refers to an Upshaw is the one from Fredonia Caroline (Smith) Patterson from Lincoln Parish, Louisiana, to her sister Nancy in Texas. The only date written on the letter is Feb. 25; I estimate the year as 1880, based on the ages of the children mentioned and events we can date. I will quote the part of interest to you:

"David Roach from Alabama was to see us this winter. James Roach from Texas also came to see us, too. James' wife died a short time before he left home. Uncle Peter Roach is in very (?) health. He has the rheumatic pains. One of the Vard Skains boys is here now." Then, in another section of the letter, she writes, "Old Aunt Katy Upshaw is living on her same old place. Annie lives with her. She is single yet. Bill Murry Skains speaks of going back after them. Dave Roach is almost rich. Old Aunt Ibby Pickens gave Dave and Tilda all she has. She bought the old Dick Bedgood place, and gave it to them. She lives with them."

I would suppose by this, the "Katy" and "Annie" were still in Alabama. The only "Katy" or Catherine Upshaw I have ever heard of was in Greenville (Butler County), Alabama, and was the wife of Leroy Upshaw, who was born in 1788 - and that was probably not the same Catherine - she would have been too old by 1880, although Upshaw's were still in Butler County, Alabama, in 1880. I included the part about "Old Aunt Ibbey Pickens" since that might be a clue as to the use of the term "Old Aunt". This family did come from the same area of South Carolina as the Pickens family, so it's possible the "Aunt" had some foundation in fact but, again, not to my knowledge.

I do not think "Old Aunt Katy Upshaw" was a blood relation - at least we have never found anything that would indicate that. We have figured it was just a term of endearment used toward older friends and neighbors.

I hope this will be of some help to you. Any additional information from your readers would be appreciated. It is very difficult to do any research on the Southern states in Massachusetts libraries; most just don't have records beyond New England.

Sincerely,

Ellen Dorsey

Dear Cousin Ted;

If I may be so familiar; I imagine you are used to being called "Cousin" by now. In our case, we are 2nd cousins, twice removed. Your 2nd great grandfather Adkin Upshaw is my great uncle Adkin. My father, Leroy C. Upshaw, often spoke of his Uncle Adkin, as well as his other uncles, all sons of Forrester and Ann (Faulkner) Upshaw. Forrester Upshaw had brothers Drury and Richard and perhaps others.

My grandfather, Middleton Upshaw, lived within 40 miles of Atlanta in 1864 at the time the Union forces, under General Sherman, bombarded Atlanta. My father, Leroy C. Upshaw, then 9 years old, often told of hearing cannon fire at night and also of seeing part of the Union Army passing by their farm home on their way toward Atlanta, on what was known as the "Turnpike".

After the war ended, they moved to Alabama and bought a farm in the neighborhood where my mother grew up, which was several miles from Alexander (now called Alexander City) in a small village community known as Bulgers Mill. My father met my mother there in the 1870's and they were married on 23 Dec 1879, in Alexander, Alabama, by W. J. D. Upshaw.

Enclosed is my Upshaw lineage chart; we will make an effort to get more information on my grandfather, Middleton Upshaw.

W. Roy Upshaw

Dear Ted;

Thank you for such a complimentary letter on my collection of Upshaw data; it has been quite an undertaking. I am so full of curiosity I will never be really satisfied until we learn what happened to Leroy Upshaw (RS) and his wife, Elizabeth (Bradley) Upshaw.

I have several ideas regarding the whereabouts of Leroy Upshaw (RS) and his wife. If they had died in Georgia, it seems that we could find some settlement of his estate or something about his widow. However, his ownership of property is not very clear.

Another theory is that they could have gone to South Carolina, as did Beverly Greenwood and his wife (who is thought to be an Upshaw girl) and who, in one document, says he was from Pendleton District, S. C., before going to Alabama. Leroy Upshaw and George Greenwood could have gone to South Carolina, then to who knows where, or could have died there. I have looked for them in South Carolina, but in a feeble way. It is very strange that Leroy Upshaw (RS) and George Greenwood, whom he owned land with in Elbert County, Georgia, seem to vanish completely.

The Leroy Upshaw who married Miss Melissa A. Gary in 1861, Butler County, Alabama, is the son of Leroy Upshaw, born 1788 in Virginia, whose wife was named Catherine; she reported on the 1850 Butler County census as having been born in South Carolina! It does seem that we should investigate South Carolina for information; Catherine's maiden name would be most helpful. I wonder if one of Leroy and Catherine's children has her name?

I do not know who the Rebecca Upshaw is, shown in the 1850 Butler County, Alabama census, as born in Georgia in 1805, unless she was the widow of Richard Upshaw, brother of Forrester Upshaw, who married Rebecca Elder. Rebecca Upshaw was mentioned in the settlement of John Davis' estate, involving the payment of a note; I don't know if there was any relationship or whether she was only a neighbor, but she lived quite close to several members of John Davis' family.

According to my correspondent, Mrs. Dorsey, in the 1850 Butler County, Alabama, census were: Leroy and Catherine Upshaw in dwelling no. 314; Peter Patterson Roach in dwelling no. 313, married into John Davis' family; in dwelling no. 321 are Samuel and Narcissa Skain, who is John Davis' daughter; in dwelling no. 330 is Andrew Davis, who is John's son; in dwelling no. 331 is John Davis (Jr.), who is the ancestor of Mrs. Dorsey.

It is strange that I, also, have an ancestor in my line on my father's side named Andrew Davis, Jr. They were in Cabarras County, North Carolina, then to Tennessee, where my grandfather, John Davis, was born, then to Mississippi and then to Arkansas where my father, Robert, was born and then to Louisiana.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Parrott

 CGLESBY Rody UPSHAW married Elijah SMITH in 1833, St. Clair Co., Ala.
 SMITH A Rody UPSHAW (b 1838) is listed in the household of Allen J.
 UPSHAW (continued)

UPSHAW in 1860 Winn Parish, La., with other families in that Parish of Henry Allen UPSHAW and James UPSHAW (see UFJ, Vol II, pg 52). What connection, if any, is there between these two Rody UPSHAWs; is either of them connected somehow with Rhoda CGLEBY, who married Haston UPSHAW in 1823 Elbert Co., Ga? Does anyone have any further knowledge about the families of Henry Allen UPSHAW and James UPSHAW in 1860 Winn Parish, La?

#15 Mrs. Robert A. Carpenter 403 E. Parker Hamburg, Arkansas 71646
ELDER I need information about Richard UPSHAW (b 1770-1780, Ga) and UPSHAW Rebecca ELDER (b 1800, Ga). A Richard UPSHAW married Rebecca ELDER on 27 Feb 1820, Elbert Co., Ga., (Marriage Book H, pg 291 - rebound into Book "L-F"). In 1830 Elbert Co., Ga., census is Rebecca UPSHAW with 1 male 20-30, 1 female 15-20, and 1 female 50-60; in 1830 Walton Co., Ga., census, is Richard UPSHAW with 2 males under 5, 1 male 10-15, 1 male 40-50, 2 females under 5, 2 females 5-10, 1 female 10-15, 1 female 15-20, and 1 female 20-30.

In Butler Co., Ala, on 23 Sep 1856, Rebecca Upshaw sold land for $400 (Deed Book D). In 1860 Union Parish, La, is listed Rebecca UPSHAW, age 60, born in Ga, and (among others), Elisha UPSHAW, age 28, born in Georgia.

Alexander Wilson UPSHAW and his wife, Z. Frances (Florence?)
UPSHAW were the first Upshaws in Union Parish, Louisiana, in 1853. Rebecca UPSHAW sold her land in Alabama in 1856 and her sons bought land in Union Parish, La, in their names. In Farmerville, Union Parish, La, Alexander Wilson UPSHAW sold
320 acres of land to William Elisha UPSHAW and Jonathan W.
UPSHAW (brothers) on 8 Aug 1860 (Deed Book J, pg 327).

I need proof showing Richard, Rebecca, and William Elisha UPSHAW together somehow, to prove that William Elisha was their son.

#16 Lt. Col. Robert J. Reynolds (Ret), 8202 McClelland Pl, Alexandria,
Va. 22309

JARRELL One of my great uncles, Jesse Lewis JARRELL, was married to UPSHAW Lila UPSHAW. According to my records, Lila UPSHAW was born
27 Sep 1853 and died 13 Sep 1890. She is buried in Crawford, Oglethorpe County, Georgia.

I am trying to determine the following:

- (1) Are my records correct?
- (2) Who were the parents of Lila UPSHAW?
- (3) When and where did she marry Jesse L. JARRELL?

I would also appreciate any other pertinent information available about this family.

CORRECTION CORNER

Upshaw Family Journal, Vol. I, page 85: 1830 Georgia census index, DeKalb County, Ga, page 53, "John R. Upshaw" as listed by Delwyn Associates is incorrect. This person is actually John Rapshaw; note my commentary about this name in UFJ, Vol I, page 64.

This name was clarified by Mr. Franklin M. Garrett, Official Historian of the City of Atlanta.

Our member, Mrs. Alice Smith, notes that in UFJ, Vol II, page 52, the census shown as "1850 Winn Parish, Louisiana" should be changed to correctly read "1860 Winn Parish, Louisiana".

Our member and Contributing Editor, Mr. David W. Morgan, notes that in UFJ, Vol II, page 67, the John Markham listed as having served as a Confederate soldier, is not John B. Markham, husband of Sarah E. Upshaw, who died in 1857 as proved by his succession papers which appear on pages 48 and 49. This John Markham is probably the son of James C. and Martha Markham, listed in UFJ Vol II, page 67, in the 1850 Bienville Parish, Louisiana, census.

Mr. Morgan also verifies that Ridlehoover is the correct spelling of the name of the family buried in Post Oak Cemetery, Bell County, Texas, as listed in UFJ, Vol II, page 71.

Barbour County

(Created in 1832 from Creek Cession; map index D4)

Backtracking in Barbour County, a Narrative of the Last Alabama Frontier; by Annie Kendrick Walker, 1941.

page 316, "The Toney's of Roseland Plantation".

Roseland now (1911) passed into the hands of a great family. Mrs. Eli Sims Shorter became the owner. No restoration was attempted at this time, but Mrs. Shorter put an overseer in the old mansion, continued to plant cotton on the great acres, and entailed the property, which at her death fell to her daughter, Mrs. Fannie Shorter Upshaw. Thus Roseland Plantation passed forever from the possession of the Toney family.

Today, the old River Road, widened and modernly surfaced, seems to have drawn away from the manor house, as if leaving it to its century-old dreams. But Mr. and Mrs. Upshaw have begun the work of restoration; and the plantation is a center of farming interest.

History of Barbour County, Alabama; by Mattie Thomas Thompson, 1939.

Herman L. Upshaw was born in Alexander City, Alabama, and received his early education in the schools of Tallapoosa County, graduating from State Normal school at Troy with the degree of B. ph. He also was a student at Columbia University, N.Y.; Chicago University and Peabody University at Nashville.

He was elected a first assistant in the public schools at Midway, Alabama, and in 1908 was elected superintendent of the city schools at Eufaula, which position he held for twelve years, resigning to accept a position with the McMillian Publishing Company, his territory being Alabama and Tennessee.

In 1929 he, jointly with Mr. Carl Strang of the same company, established the Eufaula Daily Tribune, afterwards purchasing from T. G. Wilkinson the Daily Citizen which they merged into the present Daily Tribune, which he is now sole owner and publisher of.

Mr. Upshaw is also Postmaster at Eufaula, having been appointed by President Roosevelt soon after his first inauguration. He is a man of letters, a scholar and a writer whose facile pen carries with it's every tracing, some forceful thought that he weaves into articles carried on his editorial page that deal with the problems, for the betterment of his paper.

As a citizen he is always first to take part in all progressive movements, and is the leading philanthropist of the community, generously giving financial help wherever needed.

He is a Rotarian, member of the Commercial Club, a deacon of the First Baptist Church and one of it's strongest forces.

He is the citizen who is always ready to promote the progress of the community.

He does not engage actively in politics, but is a Democrat of the type whose influence has weight.

He married Fanny Shorter, daughter of Eli S. and Wylena Lamar Shorter. Their only child is a charming daughter, now at College in New York.

in this Country. I am hear in a log caban and exerting every nerve to make a living. Such crops I have never sean. I have in near four hundred acres in cotton and I think if nothing happens to it, it will avridge 1000 pounds per acre. I shall make 8 or 9 hundred barrells of corn. I put up good stacks of foder and I have 130 acres of late corn to pul yet. James is doing business for me and by his renting 140 acres of land I think he will make 1000 dollars after giving me 40 acres and pays the rent at $4.14 per acre. My family are all well. Hoping these few lines may find you and family in good health. I am failing very fast indeed. I were taken with a pain in my left hip in June last and for 6 weeks I could scarce rise from my chair, otherwise I enjoy as good health as I did in old Elbert. I expect you would not now me for I am as grey as old Farther was and moreso my weight is 220; my wife ways 180; my children is all with me. William is playing violin; James plays well; Sarah F. performs well on the piannerfort. James, I think my crop will clear me 8000 dollars if I can get 8 cents for it and that wont clear me of debt. I sunk a great deal of money by moveing hear and I can't collect any monies in Georgia. I sent James to Georgia in April and he could not collect more than 24 hundred out of 8000. My persessions cost me 15,5,73 dollars besids intrest. I made 71 bags that averridge 450 lb.; it lact a few dollars of bringing 3200 and corn enough to last me this time or the last of September. I have commenced picking cotton but it rains every day; I wish to God it would not rain another drop until Christmas for it will take me until March to gather my crop. I have 3 acres in potatoes and sum of them is as large as your arm; such a country for peas, pumpkins, wartermelons, goards (paper torn). I left a few wartermelons voins in my cotton and I hald home 7 waggons loads at one time. I fed my hogs for 6 weeks.

I should like to hear from you; when you write direct your letter to Glenville, Barber County, Alabama. My wife joins me in our respects to your family and axcept the same yourself. Give my love to all your children. Nothing more thought of present. Yours with respect.

Oct. 20th 1841. Dear Uncle, I embrace the present opportunity (with much regret too) to inform you of the occurance that has taken place since this letter was written. That is the death of my Father. He was taken with congestive billous fever the first of Sept and died the 22nd Sept. We employed the Phisicians in the country but they could not produce a reaction. He made a will and left William and myself executors; as you have had the management of estates I should be glad to receive information from you at any time. I should have written to you sooner but I have been absent ~~from~~ home for some time and the family has been verry sick with the fever for four weeks, that is a large portion of them. William is now abed with the fever. Uncle Jim, I would be much pleased to receive a letter from you. You know my situation very well. Do write to me. My brothers and sister join me in love to you and family and family connection. Give my love to all inquiring friends and except a double portion for yourself.

Yours respectfully
Jas. R. Upshaw

Direct your letter to Glennville, Barbour County, Ala. A bad pen.

Butler County

(Created in 1819 from Conecuh and Montgomery Cos; map index E3)

The Butler County courthouse burned in April 1853 and all records were lost; the County seat is Greenville, Alabama.

Mr. & Mrs. John G. Little, Jr, with the Butler County Historical Society, and Mrs. W. N. Till, office of Probate Judge of Butler County, were instrumental in procuring most of these records, for which we are most appreciative.

The Leroy Upshaw (b 1788) family lived in the area of what is now Putledge, Alabama, which is now in Crenshaw County, having been created in 1866 partly from the southeastern portion of Butler County.

No Upshaws.

Probate Docket Books, 1853-1920. These Docket Books contain all items which came before the Probate Judge: administrations, petitions, letters, guardianships, medical licenses, and etc; searched by office of Probate Judge of Butler County; no Upshaws.

Tract Record Books (dates not given); Mrs. Little comments that she has searched the early Butler County Tract Books which include all of the present boundary of Butler County, in which no Upshaws were found; this portion which was checked is the part of the Tract Books which have been lately printed in the Butler County Historical Society Quarterly.

Mrs. Till, office of Probate Judge, was able to locate the following two items in the Tract Books:

Leroy Upshaw was issued a warrant from the Federal government, No. 49886, dated 16 Jun 1856, for the SW/4 of NW/4 of Section 4, Township 8, Range 17 E (40 acres).

Rebecca Upshaw was issued a warrant from the Federal government, No. 49865, dated 16 Jun 1856, for the NW/4 of SE/4 of Section 10, Township 8, Range 17 E (40 acres).

Mrs. Till notes that the deed from Rebecca Upshaw to A. C. L. Davis was for 80 acres (see Butler County Deeds, Book D, pg 286); the additional 40 acres (included in the 80) was found in the Tract Record as granted to a Mr. Daniel Clancey as the first owner after it ceased to be public land. Daniel Clancey's wife and A. C. L. Davis' wife were sisters, both daughters of Thomas Skains.

Deeds, 1853-1885; contributed by Mrs. Charlotte Farrott, Mrs. W. N. Till, and Mrs. R. A. Carpenter. Mrs. Till searched the Butler County deed records from the earliest extant of 1853 to 1885 and found only the following three deeds involving an Upshaw grantor or grantee.
