THE EDITOR'S DESK

I want to thank all of you for your very kind patience. This, the January, 1980 issue, is being prepared in March, 1982, so I am about 9 issues behind schedule, which I hope to bring current. Although the printing has fallen behind, research has been continuing at a steady pace, and I would like to share with you some of these activities.

I've located and visited over twenty small family cemeteries in Coweta County, Georgia, in an effort to find tombstones of some of the Upshaws who were there in the mid-1800s. Although we found only one, I did make complete transcriptions of these cemeteries and donated them to the Georgia Genealogical Society for publication in their Quarterly. Robert, Ashley, and I really enjoyed each other's company on these trips.

I've located and visited the James Upshaw family cemetery in Bartow County, Ga., again making a complete transcription for the Georgia Genealogical Society Quarterly. I could not have located this without the help of Mr. Ben Maxwell, a descendant, who lives in Rydal, Ga., only about a mile south of the cemetery, which is in basically good condition, although quite overgrown with vines, trees, and partly lies under a large fallen tree. We hope to be able to visit Mr. Maxwell again and clear it. Interestingly enough, in a plowed field within 50 feet are four piles of scattered rock which could be remains of a house foundation from days long gone by.

We stopped in Montgomery, Alabama, last summer while on the way to Florida for vacation, where I was able to visit the Alabama Archives and secure some additional Alabama Upshaw records, particularly from Shelby County cemetery volumes, as well as from other sources.

In November, 1980, I drove one of the two vans of third and fourth grade school children from their school at Mount Paran Christian Learning Center in north Atlanta to Williamsburg, Va., for a field trip of four days. My son Robert went on this trip (a fourth grader) and we had a wonderful time! We had tours in Williamsburg geared especially for the children, allowing them to visit many houses and especially crafts which would be most interesting to them, and we all enjoyed it. I was able to visit the Earl Gregg Swem Library at William and Mary College one afternoon and inspect the research papers of T. T. Upshur, who had done the first research on the Upshur family in the nineteenth century. I did not find a great amount of new material, but I was interested to determine his source of accounting of the traditional story of two brothers, Abel and Arthur, having come to America in the 1630s; Abel the proven progenitor of the Upshur family and Arthur the supposed progenitor of the Upshaw family. These findings were most interesting and will be printed in a future issue of the UFJ dealing with this subject.

Through paid researchers we have had additional research done in the National Archives, the DAR Library in Washington, D.C., and in Arkansas.

Dozens of new genealogical books are being published, and I have searched for Upshaw references the ones I have access to at the Georgia Archives in Atlanta. In addition, I have researched the following Georgia County records on microfilm at the Georgia Archives: Bartow County census, deeds, and cemeteries; Carroll County deeds; Coweta County deeds and tax lists; Meriwether County deeds; Walton County deeds and tax lists. A new book is just out on Walton County cemeteries which is helpful, although not included was the Tinsley Upshaw gravesite, which I do have a photograph of. I have found the inventory and sale of the estate of Haston Upshaw in Coweta County in 1849 and in the long list of purchasers at the sale the name of Forrester Upshaw is listed. These papers will be printed in the Coweta County issue of the UFJ.

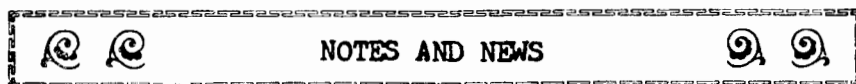

The "Georgia Room" at the Marietta central library is being revitalized with help from the Northeast Cobb Genealogical and Historical Society and has a growing collection of new genealogical books, many which the Georgia Archives does not have, which I have also researched. They also have a complete file of Georgia census microfilm which I have researched for the 1860, 1870, and 1880 census data of Upshaws in several counties.

I have placed advertising in the Postmark Collectors Club Newsletter and the U.S. (Postal) Cancellation Society Bulletin for possible postmarks or cancellations from the towns of Upshaw, which were in Georgia, Alabama, and Missouri, as well as any other. So far the response to that has been nil, although we need to remember that none of these towns may have had their own postmark but, if they did, we should hear something through these ads.

So, although the publishing is behind schedule, research has been continuing and has not slowed. Our unpublished files contain more Upshaw data than ever before (in spite of the fact that we've already published over 600 typewritten pages of data), and I have several issues ready for typing which I plan for this summer. I believe you will all be pleasantly surprised and encouraged by the Upshaw records which will appear in the next issues. Thank you again for your consideration and patience.

 DOBBS My great great grandmother was Amelia Upshaw "of Georgia"
 UPSHAW born circa 1796, married Peter Dobbs, born South Carolina, circa 1796. Marriage date and place unknown. Their son was William Upshaw Dobbs, born circa 1826, in Tennessee (per 1850 census). Peter and Amelia (Upshaw) Dobbs were in Alabama -- Cherokee and Calhoun Counties -- in the early 1830's. In a letter of my grandfather's, he gave his grandmother's name as Amelia Upshaw, saying this "relates us to William D. Upshaw of Georgia", but did not say what the relationship was. Not any of the descendants that I've located knows anything about Amelia Upshaw or who her parents were.

I wish to correspond with anyone who can help with this line.

JONES
UPSHAW

Mrs. Betty R. Jordan, 2434 Jasper Court, Norfolk, Va. 23518

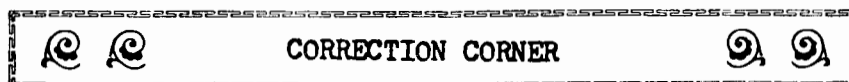

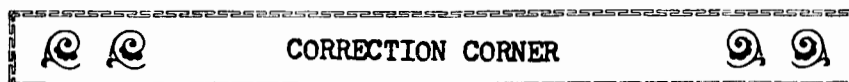

I am researching Hannah Upshaw, dau. of William Upshaw of Gloucester and Essex Co., Va. If Hannah Upshaw was the first wife of Thomas Jones I am concerned with (will dtd. 26 Dec. 1738, pro. 20 Mar. 1738/39), I may have narrowed the time frame for her marriage and subsequent death. Hannah was evidently unmarried when mentioned in her father's will, probated 1720; and if she was Thomas' first wife, would have died prior to 1725/26 when Thomas was married to my Mary.

If there were two Thomas Jones who died about the same time, and I have simply not found record of the other, it becomes very confusing for the documents I have been using to substantiate the children of Thomas and Mary are the same as the documents Mrs. Sweeney uses for substantiating the children of Thomas and Hannah.

UPSHAW

Mrs. Nancy Ruff, 13 Iris Circle, Longview, Texas 75601

Ellen Elizabeth Terrell was the daughter of Chiles Terrell and Mary Cordelia Upshaw. She married Richard Apperson Bacon and their daughter, Alice Catherine Bacon, was born 21 Feb. 1851 in McCracken Co., Ky. In 1874 Alice Catherine Bacon became the second wife of Samuel Grigsby Hines. I would like to correspond with anyone researching the Hines, Bacons or Terrells of Kentucky.

CORRECTION CORNER

Not a correction, but some additional information comes from Mrs. Melba U. Twitty, in a letter to myself dated 19 Aug. 1980. She comments that "The Arkansas Confederate Pension presented in UFJ, Vol. VI, pg. 79-80, of Cornelia (Mrs. T. L.) Upshaw refers to Thomas Lewis Tazewell Upshaw, a son of Mason Tazewell B. Upshaw (son of Capt. James Upshaw). Thomas L. T. Upshaw married Cornelia Morse and they had a son, Morse Kilburn Upshaw, who married Julia Chew. They lived in Arkansas and some descendants lived in Marianna, Lee County. Other descendants of Mason T. B. Upshaw went to Oklahoma. This information was in some notes sent to me by Mrs. Jared from data compiled by Mrs. Harry Jay of Memphis, Tenn., and I believe sent to Mrs. Jared by Mrs. Morse Kilburn Upshaw, Jr., of Jackson, Miss. I think Thomas Lewis Tazewell Upshaw was probably born circa 1835."

UFJ, Vol. II, pg. 29, 1850 census of Holmes Co., Mo., child listed as "Sarah(?)" in household of Sam'l W. and Margaret Upshaw is actually named Mariah, as shown in the 1860 census of Holmes County.

1840 Pope Co., Ark. Census (See UFJ, Vol. I, page 56):
Should read as follows: Frances Upshaw 2 males ages 10-15; 1 F age 50-60
(There is no male, age 20-30, as was incorrectly reported.)

Two Texas Female Seminaries; by Mabelle Purcell (The University Press, Midwestern University, Wichita Falls, Texas. n.d.) page 62

In addition to Judge Lipscomb's daughters, his granddaughters, Betsy Gaines (Mrs. E. M. Underhill), Ellen (Mrs. P. D. L. Hilliard), and Salina "Lena" (Mrs. Weston Bailey), daughters of William Bibb Lipscomb, attended the same school.¹⁸ It was also patronized by two nieces of the jurist, Mary "Mollie" and Fannie Bishop (Mrs. J. M. Lanham). Another granddaughter, Bettie Upshaw (Mrs. H. H. Jones) was a student in Austin "when Dr. S. C. Red graduated from the University and when Mrs. R. K. Red died."¹⁹

One of Chappell Hill's early settlers, Col. A. M. M. Upshaw, was elected a representative to the Texas Legislature from Washington County in 1857, and also in 1859. Although he lived in an educational center, he too selected the Gay Hill seminary for his daughters, Julia (Mrs. Samuel Reese Blake of Bellville) and Louise "Tea" (Mrs. Calvin Blake of Houston).²⁰

Col. Upshaw's three daughters-in-law, Mrs. Robert L. Upshaw (Bettie D. Lipscomb), Mrs. Samuel Crockett Upshaw (Attilia Aldridge), and Mrs. Harney Upshaw (Lucy Lipscomb), were all students at the same popular school. The daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Harney Upshaw, Julia (Mrs. Joe Mills) and Bettie (Mrs. Harry H. Jones), learned the rudiments at the old seminary after it became a day school; and later, Bettie followed Mrs. Red to Austin where she joined her cousins, Kate Upshaw (Mrs. George Irby Jordan) and Annie Upshaw, (Mrs. John Luther Cleveland), daughters of Judge and Mrs. S. C. Upshaw of Hillsboro, at Stuart Seminary.

FORMER RESIDENT DIED AT OAK CLIFF

Bellville Times (Bellville, Texas)

Maj. Robert L. Upshaw died at his home in Oak Cliff, Dallas, Texas on July 5, 1912.

Maj. Upshaw was the oldest son of Gen. A. M. Upshaw, late of Washington County and long since deceased, and was born in Pulaski, Tenn. in 1833.

He was graduated of the Kentucky Military Institute and followed the profession of civil engineer in the state of Indiana prior to coming to Texas in 1852 after which he followed the same line as an employe of the Houston and Texas Central railroad, the state's oldest road.

At the outbreak of the Civil War he entered the services of the Confederacy and served as adjutant on the staff of Gen. Walker, being taken prisoner at the battle of Mansfield.

After the close of the war he returned to Texas and later held a government position in the state of Montana for the period of eight years at which time he returned to Texas and made his home in Oak Cliff.

He again entered the service of the Central railroad and held a place with that road until the failure of his health a few years since.

He was a gentleman of the old school, refined in manner and of the highest sense of honor.

He was twice married, his first wife being Miss Bettie Lipscomb, daughter of Judge Abner Lipscomb. His second was Miss Adelle Graves, who survives him.

Mrs. S. R. Blake, formerly of Bellville and Mrs. Louise Blake of Houston are his sisters and Dr. Harney Upshaw of Somerville is a brother. Maj. Upshaw is well remembered by many of our older citizens.

Ann H. Upshaw, Schedule of Property

Vol. I-J, page 294, 295 (contributed by Mr. Sam U. Pruitt, who notes that this schedule of separate property was filed by Ann Hamilton (Crockett) Upshaw, wife of Arthur Martin Montgomery Upshaw, in Washington Co., Texas, dated 24 July 1850. This schedule is particularly interesting in view of the fact that Ann and her husband, Arthur M. M. Upshaw, had been married some 20 years prior to the execution of this instrument.)

Know all men by this that I, Ann H. Upshaw, wife of A. M. M. Upshaw, late of the Chickasaw Nation and now of the County of Washington and State of Texas do hereby these presents in accordance with the act of the legislature of the State of Texas entitled "An Act to Provide for the Registration of the Separate Property of Married Women", passed and approved on the 29th April 184(1?),

4) Memorandum written by Robert L. Upshaw:

The purpose of this paper is to perpetuate evidence by which my wife may, after my death, secure a pension from the State of Texas, on account of my services in the Confederate States Army.

I was born near Elkton, Giles Co., Tennessee, May 8th, 1833. Have been twice married; 1st to Betty Duke Lipscomb, daughter of Judge Abner S. Lipscomb, and his wife, Mary P. Lipscomb, June 23, 1860. Said first wife died March 23rd, 1873, without issue. Second, to Adele Graves, daughter of Dr. Leonidas Graves and his wife, Mary Graves, on the 23rd of December, 1875. She has been and is now a good wife to me, ministering to me in sickness and in health, in many adverse circumstances requiring courage and fortitude to a remarkable degree.

About Sept. 20th I was appointed by Gen. P. O. Hebert Comdg. Trans-Miss. Dept., 1st Lt. of Artillery, and was assigned to Engr. duty at Pelican Spit in Galveston Bay - about Nov. 1861 was transferred to Flournoy's 16th Texas Infantry, then being organized, as Adjutant at Camp Grace near Hempstead, Texas. After organization of the Regt. it was ordered to Virginia Point near Galveston - Then ordered back to Camp Grace and fitted out for a march to Arkansas - where at Camp Nelson, near Austin, Arkansas, about Sept. 26th, we were Brigaded with Waterhouse's 19th Texas Infantry, Fitzhugh's 16th Tex. Cavalry, Allen's 17th Inf., Flournoy's 16th Inf. - Edgar's Battery - The Brigade was assigned to D Division and not long afterward to Command of Gen. McCullough, then to command of Maj. Gen. J. G. Walker - on the organization of then Brigade I was detailed as Adj. Gen. and was in that position as Inspector Gen. for most part of the war, at close being on Gen. John H. Forney's Staff as Inspector Gen. of the Division, -Gen. W. H. King being in actual command of the Div'n - at the time of the surrender - of the Trans Miss. Dept. I was in all the engagements of Walker's Division except the battle of Jenkins Ferry, Ark., at which time I was a prisoner, having been captured by the enemy at Pleasant Hill, La.
